English Forum in Vietnam

Hello everyone, my name's Ben and I'm 13 years old. I'm new to Vietnam, I'm from Australia. But my dad's got a new club in Ho Chi Minh City. What's life like for teenagers here in HCMC? What kinds of things do you do in your free time?

Ben, 13

Hi Ben, welcome to Vietnam! I love sports. Martial arts are very popular in Vietnam, and every week I have lessons at a karate club near my house. But most of all, I like playing da cau with my friends in the park. Da Cau is an amazing Vietnamese game that's like both badminton and football. To play it, you have to kick a shuttlecock to the other players without it touching the ground. It's not an easy game, but it's possible to play it almost anywhere, even on your own. Like many Vietnamese teens, we often play football, too. I also like watching action movies and listening to music. My life is really busy.

Ba, 13

Hi Ben! Like many young people in Vietnam, I love playing computer games. I often play games on my phone. There are lots of great Vietnamese games for smartphones. Also, I sometimes play games such as League of Legends and World of Warcraft at an Internet cafe near my home. when I visit my friends' houses we often play chess or co tuong. On weekends, we sometimes go to Dam Sen Water Park. There are lots of fun water rides there. It's a great way to stay cool in hot weather, Of course, we also have to spend a lot of time studying. Vietnamese teenagers usually work hard at school. We know that it's important for our future.
