Dear Mai,
 I live in a village in the country with my grandparents. Their house is big, but it's quite old. The house has a big yard, so there are a lot of trees and flowers around it. In the neighborhood, there are many rice paddies, fruit gardens, vegetable gardens, a river and a lake. There aren't any parks, hotels or restaurants near the house, so it's very quiet here. Here is a photo.

Write soon.

On a school day, Richard's mother calls him at 7.30. He gets up and goes to the bathroom. There he washes his face and cleans his teeth. Then he gets dressed and goes downstairs to have breakfast. He leaves home at about half past eight. He usually has to stand at the bus stop waiting for the bus. He doesn't buy a ticket every day because he has a season ticket. He gets to school at a quarter to nine, and plays or talks with his friends until the bell rings.
