UNIT 6. COMMUNITY SERVICES LESSON 1.2 : Grammar (SB page 47& WB page 32)

I. Grammar:

1. Articles: We use a/an in front of a singular noun when we talk about it for first time. After that, we use the. We also use the when it's clear from the situation which one we're talking about.

Example:

- Is there a train station near here?
- → The train station is on Queen's Street.
- 2. Prepositions of place: We use prepositions of place to say where things are.
 - Example:
 - a. It's next to the park.
 - b. It's between the police station and the hospital.
 - c. It's opposite the post office.
