PASSAGES

1/ Dear Festival Committee,

I am writing about the Milford Nature Festival which took place last week.

I went to the festival with my two children, four and six. The information on the festival website said, 'There is entertainment for all the family.'

My children love face painting. Amy wanted to be a tiger and Jenny wanted to be a monkey. They had pictures of the animals to show to the face painter. But there was only one face painter, and there was no other entertainment for young children. We waited for an hour and then left the line. We went to get something to eat.

My children said their food was good, but the meals were very expensive. They cost more than their tickets for the festival.

Finally, the festival website said, 'There is a nature walk at 3.00, with information about all the flowers and trees from a plant scientist.' There was nothing else for the children to do, so we went on the walk. But the person who did the walk did not know anything about the flowers and trees in the park.

I paid $6 for two child tickets. I would like you to give me the money back.

With best wishes,

Mrs. Williams

TRUE OR FALSE

Snow Owl is located on the northern part of the country, established on the base of Sky Mountain and surrounded by the Dark Forest. Even though the name sounds scary, it is actually very beautiful and nice. The name comes from the appearance of the forest where the trees are so close together and the sunlight cannot come through. A wonderful river comes down from the mountain and passes through the town, splitting it into two. For most of the year, the town is covered with snow. Not many people know about its existence and I am really thankful for that. People are really kind and care about each other. We always try to find ways to help each other. The town itself doesn't have a lot of sights to visit.

A big historic library from the 1800's, still functional, is standing in the middle of the village next to the Town Hall. There are also two bridges connecting the town. The one in the south is the oldest and most beautiful. I sometimes go and sit by the river just to admire it.

For entertainment we have the old theaters, some coffee shops and restaurants. Younger people prefer to visit neighboring towns and cities because it gives them more choices of entertainment.

My hometown is one of the greatest place in the world and I wouldn't trade it for anything.
