New Words

a. Match the numbered words in the text with the descriptions.
Check with a partner. Listen and repeat.

I went on a vacation to Australia, where the main (1) language is English. It was my first (2) international trip outside Japan and I was very nervous. I was worried it would be hard for me to (3) communicate with people who don't speak Japanese. All the newspapers, magazines and other (4) media were in English. It's on all (5) official signs everywhere you go. The (6) government in Australia has its meetings and gives information to people there in English. The Australian Prime Minister met the President of Indonesia while I was there and they spoke in English. English is the most common language used in (7) politics between different countries. I learned so much on that trip, even though speaking English was difficult for me at first.

Jack Hughes, May 7

There are many reasons why English is an international language.

One major reason is that English is used in international politics.

English is also widely used in the entertainment industry. Most Hollywood movies are in English and many of the world's best-known singers perform in English.

English is used in airports around the world. It's the main language for airline pilots. They need to be able to read and speak English so that they can do their jobs. Hotel staff often learn how to speak English so they can communicate with tourists from around the world. Not only that, English is used by many companies to communicate with different branches around the world. These are some of the many reasons why English is an international language.
