IV/ PASSAGES

Hi Andy,

How's it going? Are you coming to my birthday party on the weekend? I'll have something awesome to show you!

I'm getting a new smartphone as a birthday present. I talked to a salesperson at Phone World today, and he helped me choose the one I want. I really need a good phone for playing games. I'm going to ask my parents for the Next-X tomorrow. I can't wait! It has a really good screen and speaker, so my games will look and sound fantastic. It doesn't have very long battery life, but I don't care because I won't take it outside much. I think this smartphone is the best option for me. It is also cheaper than some of the other smartphones, so I think my parents will agree to get it for me.

I hope you can join my party because it's going to be fun!

Ashley
